2588th CELEBRATION OF BUDDHA PURNIMA

To,
All Faculty Members, Staff&Students
Visva-Bharati

With great reverence and joy, the Department of Indo-Tibetan Studies cordially invites all faculty members, staff, students, and devoted well-wishers to join us in the auspicious celebration of Buddha Purnima-- the sacred day commemorating the Birth, Enlightenment, and Mahaparinirvana of Lord Gautama Buddha.

The occasion shall be marked by a solemn and spiritually uplifting session of Tibetan Buddhist Chanting, performed in the authentic tradition, invoking blessings of peace, wisdom, and compassion for all beings.

Event Details

Date: Friday, 1st May 2026

Time: 10:00 AM onwards

Venue: Department of Indo-Tibetan Studies

All are warmly encouraged to attend and partake in this spiritually enriching observance. Your presence and participation will add to the sanctity and spirit of this blessed occasion. May the teachings of the Enlightened One guide us all toward greater wisdom, compassion, and inner peace.

All devotees, regardless of affiliation, are welcome.

" Peace comes from within. Do not seek it without. "
